

FACTS WHAT DOES PRIME RATE PREMIUM FINANCE DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why? Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What? The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and relationship experience
- account balances and transaction history
- payment history and credit history

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice. However, you can contact us at any time to limit our sharing.

How? All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Prime Rate Premium Finance chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

What we do
How does Prime Rate Premium Finance protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

Our employees are bound by our Code of Ethics and policies to access consumer information only for legitimate business purposes and to keep information about you confidential.

How does Prime Rate Premium Finance collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account and provide account information
- pay us by check or use your credit or debit card or make a wire transfer.

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you.

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. [See below for more on your rights under state law.]

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
